

You're invited to 'Frock-tails'!

Join the Seattle Chapter of the American Sewing Guild for an evening of style and spirits.

Wear your latest handmade 'frock' and sip sewing themed cocktails at the Knee High Stocking Company's private lounge. No formal program – just a chance to mingle with people who share your passion for sewing and fabulous fashion. Grab a friend or come solo.

Thursday August 24th 7:00-10:00PM
Knee High Stocking Company
1356 East Olive Way, Seattle

No cover - No host bar - Dinner menu available
21 years and over
Space is limited to the first 25 through the door
www.kneehighstocking.com

For more information contact: events@seattleasg.org

The Greater Seattle Chapter of the American Sewing Guild (ASG) is part of a national non-profit organization dedicated to advancing the art of sewing. Over 300 area members create a learning community that encourages life-long creativity and skill building through local group meetings, educational events, online resources, social media, and community service projects. ASG welcomes beginner and expert sewing enthusiasts across the spectrum of sewing activities. For more information, including meeting schedules and membership benefits, visit www.seattleasg.org.