

Get ready for a delightful day of creativity, friendship and springtime inspiration at the Greater Seattle ASG's Spring Social and Tea! Join us for an afternoon filled with festivities, inspiration and the wonderful company of other sewists.

This is the perfect excuse to create a new festive outfit or wear your favorite spring hat and join in our exciting "Any Bag Challenge". It's a fantastic opportunity to showcase your sewing talents while celebrating the beauty and creativity of the season.

Best of all, attendance is free for all ASG members! Come relax and enjoy a charming tea social with teas, coffee, delicious baked goods, and an assortment of fresh seasonal fruits. The afternoon will be filled with lively conversation, inspiration, and the joy of spending time with fellow sewists who share your passion. Expect a few fun surprises along the way!

The "Any Bag Challenge" – Looking for a little creative inspiration? We invite you to participate in our "Any Bag Challenge". Design and create any kind of bag – a purse, tote, grocery bag, travel bag, or anything your imagination can dream up! Participants in the challenge will be entered into a drawing for a chance to win one of two $50 Gift certificates. What a wonderful reward for your creativity and craftsmanship! Your creation might inspire someone else, and it's always exciting to see what fellow members have been working on. Participation in the challenge very much appreciated but not required.

Watch your inbox for an Evite, and be sure to RSVP early, as seating is limited. Your response will help us plan to have plenty of delicious treats so every guest can enjoy the afternoon tea social.

We can't wait to see you there – and we are especially excited to see the imaginative and creative bags you will be showing for the "Any Bag Challenge" Happy sewing, and start dreaming up your next fabulous bag!
